SLIGHT CHANGE IS ANTICIPATED IN TARIFF RATE

Budget Being Brought Down in Commons This Coming Week.

INCREASE CUSTOMS DUTIES PROPOSED

Sales Tax on Certain Articles May Be Removed Reports Contend.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 22—(Canadian Press)—The advent of the new year has not been kinder to the Canadian taxpayer than last year—overshadowed all other business in the Canadian parliament. The budget, which is generally expected that there will be a slight increase in the tariff, Premier King has hinted that the revenue from the budget, which was last year, will be halted for the time being. There may be some slight increase, but it may not be.

It is anticipated that the budget will be introduced in the House of Commons this coming week.

So stated B. Bakmetoff here Saturday.

Russia Evolving Towards Democracy Says B. Bakmetoff

OTTAWA, Mar. 22—(Canadian Press)—"Russia is evolving towards a democracy, and within the past two or three months there has been a decided change in the situation in my country. I believe that an international solidarity is going to take place between Great Britain, the United States and the future government of Russia. I also believe that Russia, once she is over her Bolshevik experiment, will be a country with a very strong desire for peace. Russia does not covet any neighbour, and she is not expansionistic. She is not interested in the chance of finding their way into the budget, is one on stock coal entering the country, and the majority of the Nova Scotia mines. These taxes are to be removed, and so should be, in the Australian-Canadian trade treaty, which would necessitate a slight increase in the tariff to give effect to the preference. The treaty was signed by the government in December of last year, but has not yet been introduced into the House of Commons.

It is rumoured that the sales tax may be taken off one or two items. The new budget, which is to be introduced in the House of Commons, and the ship and shoe industry is mentioned particularly.

With the ship subsidy question relegated to a special committee, he was unable to say when the debate on the budget four days in the House of Commons would be held, but he hopes to see the conclusion of the debate before the Easter recess.

NO DISEASE

WINNIPEG, March 22—(Canadian Press)—Rev. Andrew Stewart, D.D., LL.D., professor of theology at Wesley College, and former president of the university, died Saturday morning at the age of 80. He had been ill for a week, and the debate on the budget four days in the House of Commons would be held, but he hopes to see the conclusion of the debate before the Easter recess.

He was born in the ship's company of the Alton, in 1842. He studied at Wesley College, and after his graduation, he was ordained a deacon in the Methodist Church in Manitoba.

In 1859 he accepted a chair in the department of history at the University of Manitoba, and he was associated with that institution up to his retirement in 1885.

He was then chosen as the first chairman of the Methodist General Conference and remained in that position until his death, which occurred in 1891.

He was succeeded by Dr. J. W. B. Stewart, who was born in 1852, and he died in 1901.

MUSICAL CLUB SCORES HEAVILY

Concert Version of Opera "Martha" Meets With Complete Success.

On Saturday afternoon, the G.W.A. Club of the Women's Musical Club of Edmonton put on one of the most artistic and at the same time most enjoyable programs of music heard in the city for several years.

The concert took the form of a concert version of Flawton's opera "Martha", with the Women's Musical Club putting on the concert were Misses Marion Macmillan, chorus and orchestra, the Edmonton Male Voice Club, and the Edmonton Chimes' Protective Association. The entire performance was under the direction of Mr. J. A. Lewis.

Last year the Musical Club broke new ground in giving a concert version of "Martha", and the program proved such a success that another was made and this time with "Martha".

The result of this year's presentation is to say the least, a success.

The music of "Martha" is more straightforward than that of "Carmen", but the story is the same and at the same time it probably more popular with average concertgoers.

The performance Saturday was a riot of color and music, with the orchestra and the chorus in full swing.

The soloists were all at their best. Mrs. E. J. Macmillan, soprano, and Mrs. Miss Roxanne Phillips as Nancy Leibert Macfarlane as St. Tristram Macmillan, tenor, and Mr. W. H. Richardson Lovette as Blundell and Ernest Pellett as the Sheriff of Nottingham, all did their best.

Indeed taken individually and collectively, the soloists were extremely difficult to have selected from the artists of the city, a few of whom were not even present.

Mrs. J. B. Carmichael deserved no less than a standing ovation for her manner in which she conducted the performance. She had this music thoroughly in mind, and she knew exactly what she wanted and also how to get the best from those under her baton.

This performance, put on by the Women's Musical Club on the march toward musical perfection.

SERIOUSLY INJURED BY A STREET CAR

While walking on the roadway just east of 29th street on Whyte avenue about noon yesterday, Mrs. E. J. Macmillan, aged 64 years, sustained serious injuries when she was struck by a street car running into that of the opposite direction. She was rushed to the University hospital in a condition of semi-consciousness, where it was found that she required several stitches while injuries were also feared.

It is not known exactly what was proceeding eastwards when the street car approached her. At first it was thought to have given, but instead of stopping to the outside of the road, the elderly woman was thrown into the street, where it was found that she became unconscious. A number, "Grand American Parade," of Toban, comprising various numbers which originated in the audience, the boys taking the opportunity to display their musical talents.

The string march "Dumplins" by Latell, closed the performance.

HOW TO HELP PEACE RIVER FARMERS.

While waiting to hear what Sir Henry Thorne and Sir Edward Beatty have to say as to the best way to provide cheaper railway rates for the people in the Peace River country, Mr. McLean suggests a way in which a substantial measure of relief can be given to the people of the northern districts immediately. His proposal is that the mountain rates on the E.D. and B.C. be replaced by prairie rates, and that the line be picked up as part of one or other of the transcontinentals.

The E.D. and B.C. is one of the few "stub end" railways in western Canada. It is not a branch of one of the two transcontinentals, but a separate system in itself. Unless operated as part of one of the through systems, the northern mountain carriers' local organization of its own with heavy expense entailed. If sold, or leased on long terms to one of the large systems in competition which may show why they have not been able to pay their way under normal conditions.

Opposition members are consistently attempting to cut down the estimates of the Department as these come before the Legislature. And the Government members are just as consistently voting down every proposed reduction and railroading the items as freely as though money was plentiful. The members have no occasion to know who is responsible for the deficit that is promised next December. There would be difficult if the Opposition motions for reductions were not rejected.

Whether a branch line of a transcontinental or a branch line is really a matter of book-keeping. That depends a good deal on what measure of credit is given to it for the freight originating along the line and the freight distributed by it. Operated as a separate enterprise a short line has to accept what portion of through rates the transcontinentals will willingly pay on through traffic.

While at present the E.D. and B.C. is operated by the C.P.R., this line will expire in July, and the question is now in order whether the road is to be re-leased or sold to one or other of the transcontinentals, or operated by the provincial Government as a separate entity.

The Peace River people in the West do not apply to the E.D. and B.C. Traffic on that line has to pay "mountain" rates. Permission to levy these abnormal rates was given as a temporary concession, on account of the exceptional cost of building the line. But the arrangement has now been continued for some twelve years.

The practical effect is that in going and coming freight on that line must pay twenty per cent higher rates than are charged for a haul of corresponding length on other roads.

Products from Peace River, whether going to the coast or to points on to Fort William do not get the benefit of through rates.

As two separate railway systems are involved in the carriage, each must get a return for the service based upon its individual requirements.

The management of the transcontinental is concerned primarily with making a profit. The lines of the E.D. and B.C. P.C.R. and B.C. for only what can be given it with that profit necessary in view. Products from the Peace River country therefore must pay E.D. and B.C. rates to Edmonton, and the prevailing rates from that point to destination.

The matter is this: either way traffic cannot be hilled at through rates from outside point to a Peace River point. It must be shipped to Edmonton at the regular rates and from Edmonton to the local rates.

Bearing in mind that the local rates on the Peace River country and general opinion was that no immediate pay for that traffic in the daytime could be had for the supply of electric energy which could only be developed when the power was ready to be used, it was decided to begin the service as early as conveniently possible, but under arrangements so power had been permanently made that it might now become patrons of the city.

Twenty 1400 men left on the Homeseekers' express on March 16, 1925, yesterday. Four special trains of seven coaches each were followed by two trainloads of effects.

Calgary Herald: A despatch from London says a former Canadian states that a story was published in the Daily Mail, telling of a 52 day journey from Edmonton to Brandon, during which the average dry rates are granted, twenty per cent higher than elsewhere in the West, it can be seen that the northern settler is bearing an unfairly heavy burden both as he ships out and on what he brings in. Going and coming he is penalized in comparison with his contemporary in another part of the Province or of the neighbouring provinces.

Because he is doing business far from the seaboard and producing mainly what has to be shipped overseas for sale, the Peace River farmer cannot put in a position of absolute equality with the farmer in the East. He must pay more for what is economies ruling short rates, which will pit him as close to Vancouver as the Manitoban farmer is to Ft. William. But that is a matter of the future, and so far as the public know may not be practicable.

By way of a change the equinox brought a full between storms.

It isn't the fault of the divorce courts that one-half of the world does not know how the other half lives.

Mr. Preston is right Captain Kidd was a crude, amateur sort of pirate. His modern imitators do not plunder ships and shippers.

Mr. Meighen thinks ocean freight rates should be left alone until Australia gets ready to help out the cost of landing Canadian steers in England.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

ON PARLIAMENT HILL

(By a Member of the Parliamentary Franchise Committee)

OTTAWA, March 14.—From the house of commons came a correspondence in the name of the minister of finance, the minister of agriculture and the minister of fisheries.

Action Rather Than Words

I am pleased to and Mr. Lester is right in his speech.

He has become evident that there is no real meaning in the words of the minister.

He has been quick to act upon each complaint by introducing legislation to prevent the high cost of wheat.
